Movement is the theme that caught the attention of Koyo Kouoh and will be the common thread of her installation, entitled "Dé-placements" ("Dis-placements"). Déplacement(s) chooses to consider the specific situation of a collection of modern and contemporary art destined to be presented outside the traditional exhibition spaces of museums and galleries, of private collections unveiled by collectors.

The exhibition thereby seeks to play with the spectator by offering a selection of works and a scenography emphasising the relationship between the viewers and the works, taking into account their physical movements, as well as their sensory and mental conditions. Playing on immobility and
