

APPOINTMENTS WITHIN SOCIETE GENERALE

Press release

Paris, 7 October 2020

Societe Generale announces the appointments of Delphine Garcin-Meunier as Head of Group Strategy and Vincent Robillard as Head of Financial Communication and Investor Relations. These appointments will be effective as of November 9, 2020.

Delphine Garcin-Meunier, who currently holds the position of Head of Investor Relations and Financial Communications, will replace Sébastien Proto, who recently joined the Group's General Management. Delphine will accompany the General Management in the strategic steering of the Bank, drawing on her in-depth knowledge of primary capital markets and her experience in the Finance and Strategy departments. She will report to Frédéric Oudéa, Chief Executive Officer of Societe Generale.

Vincent Robillard, currently Head of Long-Term Funding and Collateral Management for the Group, will replace Delphine. He will report to William Kadouch-Chassaing, Deputy General Manager of Societe Generale in charge of Finance.

Biographies

Delphine Garcin-Meunier began her career in 2000 at ABN Amro Rothschild in the Equity Capital Markets teams. In 2001, she joined the Equity Capital Markets department of Societe Generale Corporate and Investment Banking (SG CIB) where for 13 years she was in charge of the origination and execution of primary issues on the Equity and Equity-linked markets for a portfolio of large companies.

In 2014, she joined the Strategy Department within the Finance and Development division, with a particular focus on French Retail Banking, Transaction Banking activities, the relationship model of the corporate banking business, securities services and asset management. In 2017, she was appointed Head of Financial Communication and Investor Relations for the Group and notably prepared the presentation of the "Transform to grow" strategic plan to the financial markets.

Delphine Garcin-Meunier holds a Master's degree in International Finance from HEC and a DEA in Econometrics from the University of Paris I Panthéon Sorbonne.

Vincent Robillard began his career with PwC and then KPMG, auditing industrial and banking clients. He joined the Societe Generale group in 2004 as a Senior Inspector within the General Inspection department. For four years, Vincent carried out various assignments in France and internationally enabling him to acquire a transversal vision of the bank's organisation and business lines.

In 2008, he represented Societe Generale as part of a team comprised of various companies in charge of setting up the Societe de Financement de l'Economie Française, whose mission was to issue government-guaranteed bonds on the markets in order to refinance the French banking sector.

In 2009, he joined the Finance and Development division as Head of Long-Term Funding and Collateral Management for Societe Generale group. In particular, he worked to strengthen the Group's capacities in terms of access to bond markets and secured financing with both the ECB and private investors.

Vincent graduated from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales du Nord (EDHEC).
