

Paris La Defense, July 1st 2024

Dear Sir or Madam,

Societe Generale S.A is a French credit institution authorized and supervised by the Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Resolution ("ACPR"), regulated by the Autorité des Marchés Financiers ("AMF") and under the prudential supervision of the European Central Bank ("ECB"). As such, Societe Generale is bound by French and European legislative and regulatory requirements relating to the fight against money laundering and terrorism financing. These requirements, including provisions regarding customer knowledge and identification, and reporting to the competent Financial Intelligence Unit, are consistent with the anti-money laundering recommendations provided by the Financial Action Task Force on money laundering.

Societe Generale has implemented dedicated internal policies and procedures in compliance with national and international anti-money laundering standards. These policies and procedures apply to all branches and subsidiaries of the Group Societe Generale throughout the world, unless:

- These policies and procedures violate local legal or regulatory requirements;
- Local legal or regulatory requirement are more stringent, in which case Societe Generale complies with such local requirements.

Societe Generale is supervised and controlled by the French Prudential Control and Resolution Authority ("ACPR") which ensures that Societe Generale complies with the appropriate laws and regulations, and with Societe Generale policies and procedures.

Yours faithfully,

Bertrand Salewyn
Group Head of Société Générale Financial Crime Compliance

SOCIETE GENERALE
Compliance Division
Tours Société Générale
75886 PARIS Cedex 18