

Jean-François Mazaud

Head of Group Transformation

Jean-Francois Mazaud was appointed Head of Group Transformation in February 2019.

Jean-Francois Mazaud began his career in 1991 as a manager at Bank Indosuez, initially in Paris and then in Tokyo. He joined Societe Generale in 1993, advising the bank's clients on their fund raising transactions, in particular with regard to privatisations, IPOs or capital increases. In 1998, he was appointed Head of Equity Linked Origination, before joining the Debt Capital Markets department in 2004. In 2006, Jean-François was appointed Global Head of Debt Capital Markets and then became Deputy Head of Global Finance for Societe Generale Corporate & Investment Banking in 2008. He was appointed Head of Societe Generale Private Banking in 2012 and in 2017 he was additionally appointed Supervisor of Lyxor as Head of the Wealth and Asset Management Business Unit. Jean-Francois Mazaud was appointed Head of Group Transformation in February 2019.

Jean-Francois Mazaud has a Master's degree in Financial Engineering from the Lyon Business Management School and is a graduate of Bordeaux Management School.

Meet the Group Management Committee

Follow Jean-François Mazaud on LinkedIn

