

Yann de Nanteuil

Deputy Head of SG French Retail Banking Network

After a few years in the French Navy and in the French administration, Yann de Nanteuil joined the General Inspectorate of Finance at the Ministry of the Economy and Finance, where he carried out various ministerial and interministerial control and audit missions. During his administrative career, he held positions in ministerial cabinets and was the general Manager of the Mediation of Credit to Businesses, before joining the Societe Generale group.

In 2009, he was appointed deputy Head of Paris Etoile corporate branch. In 2012, he took up the position of Board member and Chief executive officer of Societe Generale Senegal (SGBS) in Dakar. In 2016, he was appointed CEO's advisor in charge of RISK at Komerční Banka in the Czech Republic. Then, at the end of 2017, he joined the Africa, Mediterranean & Overseas department, where he became deputy Head.

Yann de Nanteuil is a Finance Inspector and holds a Master's degree in Management and Audit from the University of Paris IX Dauphine.

