Société Générale Securities Services appoints a new Sales executive in the UK

Société Générale Securities Services (SGSS) has appointed Andrew Duffin to the position of Sales Executive in the UK. Based in London, Andrew will be responsible for covering the UK financial intermediaries and report to Eric Dickinson, Head of Sales and Product Development for SGSS Investor Services in the UK.

Andrew has 20 years experience in the finance industry, with a strong securities services background.

He started his career at the Royal Bank of Scotland, where he worked for 10 years in various operational roles within the Global Custody Services division. In 1997, he joined Deutsche Bank AG, where he was responsible for managing the agent bank network in Europe.

From 2005 Andrew worked at Clearstream Banking as a Sales Manager, where he was in charge of sales and business development, mostly for sell side and supranational institutions operating in the UK.
